Reflections for this week

By
Ms. Funston

The will of God. How do we know? How do we make difficult decisions in our lives? St. Ignatius of Loyola gave us a guide of three ways:

- We receive a clarity beyond a doubt
- We are open to receiving His will and receive it through reflection
- Using reasoning to enhance and enlighten our faith

Receiving a confidence that an act in our lives is the will of God is comforting. We know we are following Him and doing his bidding. Sometimes this comes to us easily. Sometimes it does not. When it does not, it is challenging, even frustrating. We may ask God "Why do you not just tell me what to do?". During this time, we must pray and put our whole mind into the decision. We must look toward sources of information, wisdom, and use our moral compass. As we enter this new year, may you find yourself being closer to God and His will.

Maschio's will be offering a boxed lunch of hamburger or hot dog, chips, cookie, and a bottled water on Field Day, February 3rd. They will need to know the count for this ahead of time. Teachers will be taking orders for this on Monday, January 30th. Thank you for your help with this matter.

The schedule for Catholic Schools Week was posted on ClassDojo this week. Please refer to it. We are looking forward to a fabulous week!

HURRICANE NICOLE MAKE UP DAYS

Beginning Wednesday, January 18 and running through Wednesday, February 15, we will have regular day dismissal at 2:50 to make up missed time for Hurricane Nicole. Please mark this in your calendars.
